The Charter of Anglo-Saxon Liberties

When King John, of England, placed his seal upon that historic document Magna Charta on June 15, 1215, the date went into history as that of the "greatest of all events in the political development of modern freedom."

Nearly 700 years after the signing of the Great Charter of Liberty, a movement which had its inception in the United States gave birth to the International Magna Charta Day Association, with headquarters at St. Paul, Minn. The main objective of this organization is to have June 15 of each year observed as "Magna Charta Day" or "Inter-Dependence Day," in all the English-speaking nations of the world.

Observance of the day and of the charter which is the common heritage of these English-speaking nations is urged by the Association as an expression of the recognition of the common tie that binds these nations and the common debt they owe to those responsible for the Great Charter which is the foundation of modern ideals of liberty. The Association urges observance of the day also as a means of cementing the friendship and promoting mutual understanding between these nations which, speaking the same language, and having the same ideals, are acknowledged to be the greatest forces extant for permanent world peace. Magna Charta provides that basis of unity which these nations can commemorate. Its signing was an epoch-making incident in their common history concerning which no clash of opinion is possible. One American commentator says, "The yearly observance of Magna Charta Day not only helps to keep vibrant this Anglo-Saxon International Good Will but it serves to set out in sharp relief a wholesome example to the wide world."

The alternative title, "Inter-Dependence Day" itself is an acknowledgment that American ideals of freedom have the same fundamental basis as those of the British Nations, including Canada, and it is interesting to note that since the Association first was organized, the Day is observed annually in the United States, Canada, Newfoundland, the British Isles, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. That is, the nations which trace their laws back to the historic document forced upon King John by the Barons of England, join in remembrance of the freedom it has conferred upon all. Says J. W. Hamilton, Founder-Secretary of the Association: "More and more it has become the Inter-Dependence Day of the English-speaking countries, as men have come to understand the Inter-racial kindness its recognition indicates."

"The thought is American-born, a gesture of deference to the acknowledged fount of freedom, and a tender of goodwill to other English-speaking lands of the earth."

The Day is not observed as a legal holiday, but as one of remembrance. Teachers in the public schools, wherever the Day is observed, emphasize the significance of Magna Charta to their pupils, and explain its significance in the lives of all residents of English-speaking countries. In many places, too, it is supplemented by setting aside the nearest Sunday to June 15 as "Magna Charta Sunday" on which by pupil references or Sunday School lesson the goodwill which is the central feature of the observance of the Day is given prominence. It might as well be the basis of a valuable lesson in British ideals for the cosmopolitan people of Canada—and for that reason it is interesting to note that Canada as a nation has endorsed the idea of Magna Charta Day.

Briefly stated, Magna Charta established trial by jury, restrained the Crown from using harsh and arbitrary methods of raising money, virtually placed control of taxation in the hands of the people, gave protection to minors and widows, established uniform weights and measures, limited fines and protected merchants, established the law of evidence, and, generally, assured the rights and freedom of the subject. These are the most important features of that charter which occupies so conspicuous a place in history and which established the supremacy of the law of England as the controlling power over the people.

The fifth article of the charter which is the basis of jury trial, declares "no man shall be taken, or imprisoned, or outlawed, or banished except by the lawful judgment of his peers." Another short article is significant of the desire for justice for all. In it, the King declared: "To no one will we sell, to no one will we refuse or delay, right or justice."

Marble From the North

Northern Manitoba Stone To Be Used On Office Building In Montreal

Native marble, quarried in Northern Manitoba, along the Hudson Bay Railway, may soon replace marble from Italy. "Manville," as the Canadian product is called, is being used extensively in the construction of the new head office building of the Sun Life Assurance Company, Montreal. Shipments were recently sent from The Pas by the Canadian National Railways. The northern marble is of fine texture, hard but not unduly so, and can take a beautiful polish and a sharp arête.

FLU Germs Breed In the Throat.

First: Appear As A Common Cold, But Gain Tremendous Headway In Six Hours
SOME SIMPLE PRECAUTIONS AGAINST INFLUENZA

Simple precautions taken now will enable you to fight deadly "flu" which is sweeping rapidly through the whole country. The germs of influenza gain access to the body through the mouth and throat. Keep the throat healthy and you go a long way towards stopping the trouble. An effective means of prevention is to gargle the throat three or four times daily with Nerville. Half a teaspoonful of Nerville in water makes a most efficient gargle. The germ-killing properties of Nerville quickly destroy any bacteria in the mouth or throat. If the chest is sore, if the throat is hoarse, if you have a cough—be sure to rub the neck and chest with Nerville. Every drop of it will rub in, and out will come the congestion.

Of course it is absolutely necessary to house-clean the system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills which stimulate the eliminating organs, and rid the system of disease-breeding germs. This combination treatment of Nerville and Dr. Hamilton's Pills will give prompt and entirely satisfactory results.

Telephones In Canada

Domestic Is Served By 2,482 Separate Systems

There are 2,482 telephone systems in Canada. Five of these are government owned, Alberta having two, and Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan one each. Municipal systems number 188, of which 123 are in Ontario. There are 496 private company systems, mainly in Ontario and Quebec, and 1,532 co-operative, of which 1,180 are in Saskatchewan. In addition, there are 16 private and 102 partnership systems. The number of telephones installed totalled 1,259,987, when a recent compilation was made, the estimated number of conversations made in one year totalled 2,108,400,000, including 31,400,000 long distance calls.

ST. VITUS DANCE

A Disease Of The Nerves Which Must Be Treated Through the Blood

St. Vitus dance is a disease of the nerves brought on by a morbid condition of the blood, it is a common disease with children, but sometimes attacks adults. The treatment of this trouble is to have the statement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have proved beneficial in even the most severe forms of this trouble, because they enrich the blood supply, thus carrying the necessary food to the nerves. In proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind we have the statement of Mrs. William Stead, Winton, Ont., who says: "My eldest girl at the age of nine years was seized with an attack of whooping cough which left her very weak, and finally developed into a severe attack of St. Vitus dance. She was under a doctor's care, but with no beneficial results. We also tried other treatments, but with no better results. To make matters worse, she was taken down with measles. Again the doctor was called in, as she became so weak, and her limbs so tremble that we had to take her about in a little hand wagon. I thought a change of air and scene might help her, so we sent her by boat to Port McNicoll, a distance of about a hundred miles. She seemed to improve while there, but as soon as she came home her strength was gone and she took her to another doctor, but with no better results. I was distracted to see how helpless she was becoming, so I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. I got six boxes, and they did what neither doctors nor other remedies had ever started to do. They built her up completely; the St. Vitus dance disappeared, she has no sign of weakness, can run and play with the other girls, a thing she could not even try to do for about eighteen months. She walks to and from school, a distance of about a mile, which, of course, is proof of her present good health. I have much to praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for, and always recommend them in all cases of St. Vitus dance. You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Prize For Canada The Chicago Tribune says: "Canada is a land of agriculture and minerals and of fish and forests. When crops in the west no longer have the heavy surpluses of the present, Canada will expand again. It is a great potentiality, and as long as rains fall and the black earth of the glaciers and the black earth of the glaciers land where men will wish to live."

Wheat Acreage It is estimated that nearly 25,000,000 acres will be sown to wheat in Canada this year. Last year we had 24,114,846 acres sown to wheat, and the total production was 533,571,000 bushels, an average of 22.1 bushels per acre.

Good Friend To Trappers

Radio Makes Life In Northern Wilds Less Lonely

The trapper's life in the wilds of northern and central British Columbia is not the lonely existence it used to be, for the radio is keeping the isolated cabin homes of these forest nomads closely in touch with the world's activities.

The radio has been a wonderful boon to the Canadian trapper and only the lowliest of them have not equipped themselves with radio sets. Indeed, owing to the distance to be covered and the various technical difficulties to be overcome to obtain satisfactory reception, most of them have bought powerful sets. No longer does the trapper find that nights are made for sleep alone. After following the trapline all day the modern trapper spends the evenings in his cabin smoking his pipe and listening to the news of the day and the orchestra broadcasts from hundreds of miles away.

Uniform Prize Ribbons

Uniformity In Color Is Agreed Upon For Fairs and Exhibitions

The Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, has informed the Canadian Association of Exhibitions that it is willing to co-operate with the association's suggestions for uniformity of color in prize ribbon awards throughout Canada.

Hereafter at all fairs and exhibitions under the jurisdiction of the association first prize will be denoted by red, second by blue, third by white, fourth by yellow, fifth by green, and sixth by pink. Sweepstakes winners will be awarded the red, white and blue combination and the grand champions red and blue.

Much confusion has resulted in past years at fairs and exhibitions by the failure to adopt a standard system of colors with regard to awards.

COLORFUL SCENES AT ELECTIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, England. — Hundreds of thousands of Londoners kept watch the small hours of the morning as the fatal figures shifted on hundreds of lofty screens and electric signs.

In Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square and other famous centers of London, the jostling crowds took a carnival appearance. Vendors of vari-colored toy balloons elbowed men in evening clothes, while male revelers walked along the pavements masquerading in women's coats and hats.

Tops of the buses were crowded with people out to see the spectacle and apparently careless of the fact that they were not getting anywhere in the tremendous traffic blockades. Lower Regent Street by midnight was jammed with buses fifty deep. It was estimated at least 30,000 persons had packed into Trafalgar Square, where a huge stereoscopic electric bulletin was mounted.

Party partisans even decorated the huge lions at the foot of Nelson's monument with their colors, but the police decreed they away.

In night clubs, restaurants and hotels throughout the fashionable West End, thousands of London society folk danced the hours away into the early morning, while the election returns by radio broke to the music.

Premier Baldwin spent the evening more quietly at Number 10 Downing Street, his official residence, with Mrs. Baldwin and a party of friends. He listened to the returns over the radio.

His Majesty Suffers Relapse

Public Is Worried Over News Regarding Condition Of King George

London, England.—Somewhat assuring news as to the condition of King George, who was learned to be again confined to bed and suffering from an attack of fever, was obtained from Windsor Castle.

The shock caused by the news that His Majesty had suffered a relapse, was two-fold. This came first from its unexpectedness, since most of his subjects thought their ruler normally convalescent, and, second, from the gravity of the King's malady. Empyema is considered a dangerous disease, particularly apt to strike a sudden mortal blow.

Very few persons knew that His Majesty had suffered a relapse. The fact was not public in London and the voting in the general elections had distracted and absorbed the attention of every one in England.

American Boat Seized

Another Fishing Trawler Is Held By Authorities At Pacific Port

Prince Rupert, B.C.—The United States salmon trawler "Mary C. Fisher" has been brought into port here by the Canadian patrol boat Rydies after seizure off Tow Hill, Graham Island, for violation of Canadian fishing regulations.

Captain A. A. Pillion, of the salmon trawler, claims he went to Tow Hill to make repairs on allowed under international agreement. The seizure of the "Mary C. Fisher" follows a number of other seizures of U.S. salmon trawlers recently. It is claimed that the boats are using Canadian waters for fishing under the guise of entering the waters for shelter, effecting repairs, or other valid reasons.

Sewer Gas Explosion Causes Much Damage

One Person Relieved Fatally Injured When Blast Rocks Ottawa

Ottawa.—Explosions of sewer gas in four parts of the city caused probably fatal injuries to one and hurt a number of others, at the same time destroying considerable property where the blasts were most severe.

There was panic in several sections when the booming of the explosions, accompanied by leaping pillars of flame and water, shook dwellings and rattled the windows of houses and office buildings. Women and children ran screaming from their homes.

In the streets, man-hole covers were thrown into the air a height of 50 or 60 feet. Confusion reigned. Fire alarms brought apparatus to scout fires, and patrol where there was likelihood of any outbreak.

St. Martin's Reformed Episcopal Church, built in 1876, and a landmark in the Sandy Hill district, was churned into wreckage as though it had been blasted by high explosives. Several stores in its vicinity were also destroyed, but persons in these latter buildings were not badly hurt.

Grain Buyers Organize

Will Function Along Lines Recommended By Grain Enquiry

Saskatoon, Sask.—Grain buyers of Western Canada have an organization under formation which will be known as the Grain Buyers' Service Bureau. It was announced here. It will be managed by an executive committee consisting of a number of active buyers in the West. The organization will function along the lines recommended by the Royal Grain Enquiry during the sittings in Saskatchewan last winter and is aimed to raise the standard of grain buyers considerably during the next few years.

An employment bureau will be handled in connection with the organization to assist its members in securing employment. At present the organization has a large membership in Northern Saskatchewan, and by fall a 100 per cent. membership in Western Canada is expected. Further particulars of the body are under preparation and are expected to be completed within a few days.

Working For World Peace

Saskatchewan Will Hold Provincial Conference On June 28, At Saskatoon

Saskatoon.—With a dominion peace conference as objective, provincial conferences are being organized, Saskatchewan joining in the movement by arranging a gathering at the University of Saskatchewan, on June 28. This was decided at a meeting called by Mrs. H. Johnston, president of the United Farm Women of Saskatchewan, and attended by representatives from all organizations in the province working for world peace. The date was chosen to accommodate the large number who will be in Saskatoon for rural women's conventions covering not only the province but the whole of the Dominion, represented in the Women's Institutes.

In the streets, man-hole covers were thrown into the air a height of 50 or 60 feet. Confusion reigned. Fire alarms brought apparatus to scout fires, and patrol where there was likelihood of any outbreak.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED ON REPARATIONS

Paris.—The German experts and their creditors came to an agreement on revised reparation annuities as proposed by Chairman Owen D. Young.

These annuities average 2,050,000,000 gold marks (about $482,000,000) for thirty-seven years; 1,700,000,000 marks ($408,000,000) for twenty-one years, and 900,000,000 marks ($216,000,000) for the final year.

Under the agreement as concluded, these annuities will run from September next, instead of from April 1 last, as originally calculated. The Dawes plan of payments will meanwhile continue in force.

The situation was explained by Thos. W. Lamont, United States representative, as follows:

"Both creditor and German experts have heretofore declared themselves willing to accept the annuity figure of 2,500,000,000 marks as suggested by the chairman, although a difference existed on the question of interpretation."

"This difference has now been removed and a common basis for interpretation acceptable to both the creditors and to Germany has been reached, subject, however, to agreement on the outstanding conditions which still remain for discussion and settlement."

It was further explained this agreement was no one's victory, for both Germans and creditors gave way to make it possible.

The general opinion of the experts was that a most important step had been taken toward final elimination of the Great War. There was no disposition to cry victory because there remained a number of knotty points among German conditions and allied reservations, any one of which if not satisfactorily disposed of might make final agreement impossible.

A Reciprocal Visit

Australians Invite Canadian Boys To Make Return Tour

Victoria.—"We are leaving Canada with the hope that a reciprocal visit to Australia will be arranged for Canadian boys," Major John J. Simons, leader of the Young Australia League, stated prior to embarking on the liner "Aorangi" homeward bound.

"We have had a wonderful tour, and its success has greatly exceeded our expectations," he added.

The aim of the League in fostering these tours, Major Simons said, was to create better understanding between the English-speaking peoples of the world, and in this, he thought, the League had been if a large measure successful.

Salmon Treaty Approved

Committee Evenly Divided and Chairman Voted In Favor

Ottawa.—On the casting vote of the chairman, William Duff, Liberal, Antigonish-Guyeboro, the marine and fisheries committee of the House of Commons approved the Canada-United States sockeye salmon fisheries treaty. The convention was signed at Washington on March 27.

When the division was called, ten members of the committee voted against the pact and ten in favor, with the vote a tie, Mr. Duff, as chairman, then voted for the treaty.

Casualty List Heavy

Manitoba.—The death toll in the typhoon in Southern Leyte province was reported at 112 as communication with that section was re-established. First reports of the storm received here gave the number of deaths as ten. Some of the towns in the typhoon area still were isolated when the casualty list was completed.

Amended Bill Is Passed By Committee

Would Make Divorce Much Easier For Deserted Wives

Ottawa.—An amendment to the bill respecting the domicile of married women, although opposed by a large section of the house, passed when Parliament went into committee to consider the bill. The amendment makes it possible for a woman, deserted by her husband and left living alone for two years, to establish her domicile in any province of Canada where a divorce court exists for the purpose of obtaining divorce.

The bill, as amended, passed the committee stage and now stands for third reading. The amendment was passed by a vote of 36 to 28.

During the debate, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, declared that conditions in Canada would be worse than in Reno if the bill as amended became law. In Reno, a person desiring to obtain a divorce was required to wait three months before taking proceedings. Under the bill before the house, such persons could go to a province where a divorce court existed and begin proceedings immediately.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, pointed out that a woman wishing to obtain a divorce must establish her domicile to the satisfaction of the court.

Slaughter Of Tribesmen

2,000 Abnais Reported To Have Been Slain In Tribal Fight

London.—A Jerusalem dispatch to the Express says desert runners brought to Beyrout word that 2,000 Arabes were slain at Elasar, Nejd, in a battle between Ajmann and Jaiwah tribes.

The fight was attributed to a breach of desert hospitality.

The sheik of Ajmann visited and was entertained by the sheik of Jaiwah, but no sooner had he left the tent of his host than he was attacked.

The Ajmann tribesmen promptly retaliated and in the following conflicts both the chiefs and a thousand tribesmen on each side were reported to have been killed.

Capital Invested In Canada

Canadians Own Over Half Of Securities In Dominion

Ottawa.—Canadians own from 55 per cent. to 65 per cent. of the securities of all enterprises located on Canadian soil. British investment in Canada at the beginning of 1928 was two-thirds that of United States investments in this country, or $2,209,517,000, as compared with $3,286,517,000.

The total British and foreign investment in Canada at the time noted amounted to $3,742,043,000, the balance of $245,740,000 coming from alien countries other than the United States.

APPEAL IN TAX CASE IS WON BY WHEAT POOL

Ottawa.—Judgment was given by the exchequer court in favor of the Saskatchewan Wheat Producers, Limited, in their appeal from the assessments in the years 1925 and 1926, by the minister of national revenue, at $154,143 and $302,489 respectively.

"These amounts represented deductions set aside for elevator and commercial reserves, and for operating expenses."

Mr. Justice Audette held that the deductions were merely temporary loans made by the farmers in the pool and were not gains or profits within the meaning of the act.

The judgment says in part: "The deductions are of such less of the price, the proceeds of the farmer's grain, which he leaves, by agreement, in the hands of such associations for the purposes of handling his grain to his best advantage."

"Under all circumstances of the case, I find that the deductions in question are but temporary loans and advances made by the farmer, out of the price of his grain, to the pool capital for carrying on, and acquiring elevators, the value of being credited to him as his own, having been his own all through under the true meaning of the provincial act and the contract made thereunder, and that the association acting as such intermediary capacity for the grain growers, accounts for every cent it receives, and retains nothing that amounts to gain or profit."

AMENDMENTS TO ELECTION ACT ARE EXPLAINED

Ottawa.—Hon. Lucien Cannon, solicitor-general of Canada, explained to the House of Commons the two principles involved in the amendments recommended by the special standing committee which, during the present session, has investigated the Dominion Elections Act. These amendments were before the House for approval.

The first radical change recommended by the committee was for the appointment of returning officers by the chief electoral officer for the Dominion. In the past returning officers all across Canada had been appointed by the governor-general-in-council at the recommendation of the secretary of state.

The second principle requiring change, according to the recommendations, was in the compilation of federal voters' lists from provincial lists. The recommendations contained in the amendment urged that in urban centers enumerators be appointed to compile permanent federal lists. This practice would save much expense and trouble and will enable inaccuracies to be eradicated, the committee agreed, Mr. Cannon pointed out.

It was the hope of the committee, Mr. Cannon said, that the amendments might be passed during this present session since they would require some time to be put to practical use. The bill was given second reading forthwith and considered in committee.

Mr. Cannon pointed out that the amendments provided for in the bill would apply at the next general election. It was the opinion of the committee that they should not apply at any by-election which might be held before the next general election.

Many Press Delegates Going To Conference

Canada Is Sending Twenty To England Next Year

Montreal.—J. H. Woods, managing editor of the Calgary Herald, and chairman of the Canadian Division of the British Empire Press Union, accompanied by his wife, sailed from this port en route to London, England, where he will make arrangements for the Canadian contingent of press delegates to the Imperial Press Conference next year.

"Canada will be sending 20 delegates to represent the 50 members of the Union in Canada," said Mr. Woods. "This is the largest representation of any part of the Empire with the exception of the British Isles."

Mr. Beckwith has leased his farm here and leaves to visit a brother in Connecticut. He also will go to Pennsylvania for a visit before heading for British Columbia.

Five Italian Fliers Killed

Rome.—The crew of five of a military bombing plane were killed when it crashed into Mount Orsuto near Corniglio, while on a night flight. The dead were two lieutenants, two under-officers, and a soldier mechanic. A sudden violent storm had come up while they were flying over the Apennine mountains.

Rebels Kill Ambassador

Constantinople.—Authentic information has reached Constantinople from Afghanistan, stating that Afghan rebels captured and killed Gukhan Djeiani Bey, Afghan ambassador to Turkey who was recalled by former King Amanullah to aid in the fight against the rebels. The report said that Gukhan was tortured to death.

Unemployed In Britain

London.—The number of unemployed in Great Britain on May 13 totalled 1,104,700 persons, a decrease of 28,000 under the previous week. It was officially announced here. The number was also 13,690 below the unemployment figures of May 13 1928.

Verdict Gladys Knowles Is Accidental Death

"We find that Gladys Knowles came to her death at about 8.30 p.m. on May 26, at Lundbreck Falls by drowning, caused by a car in which she was a passenger, driven by Geoffrey Knowles, failing to make the turn, accidentally slipping over the cliff into the Old Man River. We do not find any contributory negligence on the part of the driver."

"We strongly recommend that a protective fence be constructed on both sides of the river between the bridge and the falls."

The first witness called was H. Snowdon, on identification of the body of Gladys Knowles.

Dr. Ross, of Hillcrest, gave evidence to the effect that he was called to the falls about 9 p.m. May 26. The body had been taken from the river, and artificial respiration had been tried by E. Hill of Coleman, without result. He stated that she was dead on his arrival, both bones of the right arm were broken, and the cause of death was drowning.

John Griffiths, miner, of Hillcrest, stated that he and a lady friend saw the car drive up and stop very close to the edge of the canyon. After two or three minutes two attempts were made to back the car from the edge, and then it went forward, but in attempting to make a left turn, the car slid over the cliff into the river. He secured help from passing cars to rescue the survivors.

Sgt. Jones, A.P.P., had prepared a sketch of the place where the accident occurred, and explained, from measurements taken, how the car had gone over the brink of the canyon, the skid marks of the tires being denoted on the plan.

Lynnie Parsons, of Frank, aged 18 years, in giving evidence, said that the four young people started from Coleman in a Ford open car borrowed by Tony Nicholas. He drove to Bellevue, with Gladys beside him, at which place they all changed seats, Jeff and herself taking the front. They drove to Cowley, then came back to the falls. She did not remember anything after the car took the plunge till she found herself in the water, from which she was taken by Jeff.

James Koury, miner, of Coleman from whom the car was borrowed, stated it was a Ford 1927 model. It had recently had new brake linings put in and he had used it on the Sunday forenoon, when it was in good working order.

Geoffrey Knowles, the last witness called, was given the protection of the Canada Evidence Act. His evidence corresponded with that of the previous witnesses. As the car began to slide towards the edge of the canyon, he applied the foot brake, but the car slid over the cliff. On coming to the surface of the water he thought he saw Tony stand up and brush the hair from his eyes. He saw his sister's head bob up, and pulled her from the water, but there was not a sign of life. The depth was 4½ to 5 feet, and a very swift current. He did not think they were in any danger when they stopped at the falls.

The report of the annual meeting of the Board of Trade held on Wednesday, will be published next week.

Mrs. A. F. Short left on Monday of this week to attend the Eastern Star convention being held in Edmonton for three days.

Mrs. Fairhurst attended the graduation exercises of Galt hospital, Lethbridge, at which her daughter was one of the graduating nurses, being second in the points obtained in the final exams.

Miss Edith McIntlock returned to Winnipeg last Thursday, after visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McIntlock, Caribou.

Creative Effort Pays

If any merchant feels he is not receiving the amount of local trade which his territory should produce, careful examination may reveal some of the reasons. One reason above all and which too many fall into the error of ignoring is that of publicity. In the face of the most aggressive advertising by city houses in catalogues and daily newspapers, a local merchant has himself large ly to blame if he makes no effort to interest the people of his town by advertising his wares in the local newspaper published in his town. He may think the people know his store—undoubtedly they do, but the main factor that brings people into a store is goodwill, service and a response to advertising effort. Take a look through the columns of a daily or weekly newspaper, and notice how much you are impressed by the various advertise-

Though the water rose to high levels in West Coleman and East Coleman during Sunday, it did not reach the record of 1923, when most of the lower places in town were submerged. So all boys took advantage of the brief flood on Sunday to indulge in floating on raft and trying to make believe they were modern Robinson Crusoes.

Palace Theatre has a most amusing picture for the week-end entitled "The Cohens and The Kellys," one of the best ninth producers of modern pictures. Barnes Circus Coming!

The all new production of the AL G. Barnes Circus is coming to Blairmore on Tuesday, June 11th.

Advertising agents representing: AL G. Barnes Circus have been posting pictorial circus bills in this vicinity announcing the coming of this excellent show, and advertisements will be found in our columns this week. The management of the AL G. Barnes Circus announces the following features this year.

The all new spectacle, entitled "Aladdin and the Parade of Gold," in which approximately 1,000 people take part, including the Chinese beauty, Lola Lee Chong; the two Mastodons, Tusko and The Mighty Tusko; Klinkhardt's equestrian midgets, fourteen tiny horsemen from Bavaria; San Marcus, the $16,000 equine star; the zebras round-up, with the largest herd in captivity in America; and many other novel features and performances given by American and foreign artists, also animals from every part of the world.

Two performances are given daily—the afternoon show starting at 2 o'clock, and the night performance at 8 o'clock. The doors are open one hour previous for the inspection of the zoo, and for the children to see the two mammoth beasts which require two specially constructed railway cars for their transportation.

The development of the art of brewing as we have traced it since the Egypt of 300 B.C., through the period of the Greeks, Roman, Spaniards, Gauls and Germans all having adopted beverages made from barley, we now come to early English history.

William of Malmesbury informs us that in the reign of Henry II the monasteries were remarkable for the strength and purity of their ales, brewed from malt prepared by the monks with great skill and care.

Today malt beverages, BEER — ALE — STOUT are considered Health Drinks.

Where BEER has once been introduced, it has generally become the national beverage.

Old Hassi nodded. He remembered the night well, remembered the masked figure who had stepped into their camp and who shouted defiantly: "Give me twenty of your young men who are not afraid to die! And if the law is wrong, we'll overturn the law!"

"It was only a boy indeed," continued the Red Shadow, "but I dreamed of saving the people of Morocco from injustice. When I returned to Fez, they forced me to resign from the army. I acted as if that blow had made me stupid, almost half-witted. I spent all my time picking wild flowers and so they searched him out. And yet it was Red Shadow, never suspecting that he was the stupid, timid boy living right in their midst."

Then complications had arisen. General Fontaine died and the Red Shadow's own father, General Birague, was sent out from France to command the post at Fez. He had come with one purpose uppermost in his mind—to wipe out the Red Shadow. How was his son, Pierre, to meet this situation? Could he betray the people he had learned to love? He could not. And yet it was no less difficult to keep his parent from suspecting that his boy was an enemy of the French.

"So I continued to play the fool," he went on, "and I succeeded in deceiving my father. Now because he thinks I am a weakling he hates me. That is bad enough, but to see Margot despise me too! Why, I came to Morocco to show Margot I was a man!"

Back among the tents there came a scurry of excitement. A volley of guttural orders filled the night as a dozen of the Red Shadow's men dragged in a prisoner caught by the sentry. He was thrown unceremoniously in front of the fire—five feet of insignificance dressed in bulging riding breeches fashioned out of enormous checks. It was hard to say which was the most ludicrous, his outlandish clothes, his mustache on his tiny face, pale with consternation.

Hassi drew his sword. "Let's kill him! He's a spy! I'm after blood." The stranger's squeaky voice protested. "Well, don't look at me, I'm anemic!"

The menacing face of Hassi terrified him. "You can't kill me! I'm an American! I'm no spy. I'm only the son of your correspondent for the Paris Herald. I didn't even mean to come here. Early this morning I went out horseback riding with my friend, Pierre Birague. Later he gave me the slip and I thought he had headed this way."

At this point the Red Shadow came forward. He spoke in the Ritt's native tongue. What he said meant that the prisoner should be released.

here tonight, Paul," he told him. "It's just finishing a Mediterranean cruise. You and Margot might take the Bridal Suite and as Governor of the Post, I can marry you."

Margot interrupted. "As the bride, don't you think I deserve to be consulted?"

Paul laughed. "You could hardly be married in that riding habit, Margot!"

Margot tossed her head. "I don't suppose you thought that we two might go riding in the desert together?"

"You see, Paul," General Birague told him good humoredly, "Margot hoped you'd pick her up on your horse and carry her across the hot desert sands."

Perhaps Paul's sense of the romantic was partially awakened. At any rate the plan for a hasty marriage appealed to him and he begged General Birague to make out his passport. Then he turned to the girl.

"Margot, I'll be back for my answer in five minutes. If it's no, I'll make you say yes!"

"There, Margot, there's romance for you!" remarked the General. As Paul crossed the inner court, Azuri sneaked up beside him. He turned on her with a furious countenance.

"Azuri, you can't follow me like this!"

She rubbed her sensuous body against him. "Lover, come with me tonight to the hills—and tomorrow morning in your arms, I will whisper to you the name of the Red Shadow!"

"I don't believe you. You don't know."

Azuri twined her arms about his neck and placed her warm dark cheek next to his. "Paul, I cannot give you up to this French woman!"

Fontaine wrenched himself free and taking the girl by the shoulder he threw her roughly to the ground. Her dark eyes flashed jealously as she rose slowly, showing her gleaming white teeth, and sneering.

"Azuri—that name means tiny claw. When she loves she loves for always and when she hates—she hates!"

And Azuri crept out toward the desert, leaving this half muffled threat ringing in Fontaine's ear.

Pierre ventured timidly toward Margot and handed her a small bouquet. "See Margot, I've got some lovely wild flowers for you!"

The girl looked at him despairingly. "Wild flowers? Oh Pierre, why don't you go out and fight the Red Shadow? If only you would do one thing to make me proud of you!"

Suddenly she caught sight of Captain Fontaine coming across the court yard. When he entered she greeted him eagerly.

"What luck, Paul?"

"Great luck, Margot! I nearly caught the Red Shadow. I found his secret hiding place and I've covered it with a concealed machine gun. Next time he goes there we'll mow him down."

"Bravo!" shouted General Birague who had arrived in time to hear Fontaine's confident boast.

"Oh, that's great!" put in Pierre. "But father, wouldn't it be funny if he didn't go there again?"

The General did not bother to answer his son and Pierre who was well accustomed to snubs, resumed silence. His father's interest was primarily in Paul. He had been watching the progress of his romance with Margot and had noted the soldier's neglect and the girl's dissatisfaction. For the sake of his friendship for Margot's father, General Birague sincerely desired her happiness. He saw a way of promoting it.

Paul laughed. "You could hardly be married in that riding habit, Margot!"

Margot tossed her head. "I don't suppose you thought that we two might go riding in the desert together?"

"You see, Paul," General Birague told him good humoredly, "Margot hoped you'd pick her up on your horse and carry her across the hot desert sands."

Perhaps Paul's sense of the romantic was partially awakened. At any rate the plan for a hasty marriage appealed to him and he begged General Birague to make out his passport. Then he turned to the girl.

"Margot, I'll be back for my answer in five minutes. If it's no, I'll make you say yes!"

"There, Margot, there's romance for you!" remarked the General. As Paul crossed the inner court, Azuri sneaked up beside him. He turned on her with a furious countenance.

"Azuri, you can't follow me like this!"

She rubbed her sensuous body against him. "Lover, come with me tonight to the hills—and tomorrow morning in your arms, I will whisper to you the name of the Red Shadow!"

"I don't believe you. You don't know."

Azuri twined her arms about his neck and placed her warm dark cheek next to his. "Paul, I cannot give you up to this French woman!"

Fontaine wrenched himself free and taking the girl by the shoulder he threw her roughly to the ground. Her dark eyes flashed jealously as she rose slowly, showing her gleaming white teeth, and sneering.

"Azuri—that name means tiny claw. When she loves she loves for always and when she hates—she hates!"

And Azuri crept out toward the desert, leaving this half muffled threat ringing in Fontaine's ear.

The Oil For the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them.

It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

Canada Honey Exports

Of the total honey production in Canada last year of 22,489,000 pounds valued at $2,785,467, 1,246,017 pounds valued at $104,200 were exported. The Netherlands was the biggest buyer, taking 517,370 pounds and the British Isles were next with 319,815 pounds.

Pierre ventured timidly toward Margot and handed her a small bouquet. "See Margot, I've got some lovely wild flowers for you!"

The girl looked at him despairingly. "Wild flowers? Oh Pierre, why don't you go out and fight the Red Shadow? If only you would do one thing to make me proud of you!"

Suddenly she caught sight of Captain Fontaine coming across the court yard. When he entered she greeted him eagerly.

"What luck, Paul?"

"Great luck, Margot! I nearly caught the Red Shadow. I found his secret hiding place and I've covered it with a concealed machine gun. Next time he goes there we'll mow him down."

"Bravo!" shouted General Birague who had arrived in time to hear Fontaine's confident boast.

"Oh, that's great!" put in Pierre. "But father, wouldn't it be funny if he didn't go there again?"

The General did not bother to answer his son and Pierre who was well accustomed to snubs, resumed silence. His father's interest was primarily in Paul. He had been watching the progress of his romance with Margot and had noted the soldier's neglect and the girl's dissatisfaction. For the sake of his friendship for Margot's father, General Birague sincerely desired her happiness. He saw a way of promoting it.

"A boat of the French Line stops here tonight, Paul," he told him.

"It's just finishing a Mediterranean cruise. You and Margot might take the Bridal Suite and as Governor of the Post, I can marry you."

Margot interrupted. "As the bride, don't you think I deserve to be consulted?"

Paul laughed. "You could hardly be married in that riding habit, Margot!"

Margot tossed her head. "I don't suppose you thought that we two might go riding in the desert together?"

"You see, Paul," General Birague told him good humoredly, "Margot hoped you'd pick her up on your horse and carry her across the hot desert sands."

Personal and Local

Pete Smith, for a number of years a miner at the International Coal was successful in the recent exams, in securing his papers as fire-boss.

The Canadian Legion is trying to get action among the local football fans, and it is probable they will have a strong team in the Pass league this season. A meeting was called last Sunday afternoon, but was cancelled owing to rain.

The pole lines of the lighting system of Coleman Light & Water Co. Ltd. are being replaced by Brotherhood Electric Co. of Calgary. The old line had outlived its usefulness, some of the poles being so badly rotted at the butts that it required very little effort to bring them down.

Local golfers intend to call a meeting to re-organize for the season, which has been delayed owing to the departure of Donalcliff McLean, who was secretary last year. There has been no work done on the course this year, though a few have played over it. The ground is leased from Joe Michalsky, and it is probable that a further lease will be made.

Mr. Janostak has sold his store building at Crows Nest Lake to Frank Henriette, who will entice the tired tourist to stop for a while by the sale of summer refreshments and visitors will also be able to regale themselves with "hot dogs." Colemanites and others will doubtless be calling to sample the line.

Word comes from Lacombe of an addition to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Graham, twin daughters arriving last Friday. As they are well known in Coleman, the news excited considerable interest among relatives and friends, who extend to them congratulations on the auspicious event.

Coleman golfers taking part in the Blairmore golf tournament over the week-end were H. C. McBurney, Capt. R. F. Barnes, J. McLeod and Geo. Pattinson. Despite the rain the events were played to a finish. Next year's tournament for Pass clubs is to be held in Cranbrook.

Donalcliff E. McLean, who for several years has dispensed liquors to the thirsty in Coleman, and who in private life distinguished himself as an amateur actor of no mean repute, left this week to take up his new duties as hotel inspector, with Drumcheller as headquarters, though until he secures a suitable house in that town he and Mrs. McLean will reside at Hanna.

Rev. A. D. Currie was seized with an attack of pneumonia on Saturday following the funeral of the late Wm. Wilson. At the gravestone a heavy downpour of rain gave him a chill and he went to bed immediately on his arrival home. So serious did Dr. Borden consider him that on Sunday he administered oxygen. He is now slightly better.

At Michel on May 24 Coleman baseball team defeated the home team by 6-2. On May 26 Michel defeated Hillcrest by a score of 23-2. Pincher was to have played here on Monday, but the game was called off owing to wet weather. On June 10 Hillcrest is scheduled to play here, and the boys would like to see a good turn-out of the fans.

Fred Antrobus Jr., of McMaster University, Toronto, who is spending the summer vacation with his parents here, was successful in winning thirteen first awards and a scholarship. This is highly commendable and it is worthy of note that Mr. Antrobus received his high school education up to Grade 12 at Coleman, later attending Crescent Heights, Calgary, for Grade 12, and subsequently to his Bachelor of Arts degree at Alberia University.

Twice in recent weeks The Journal has been threatened with legal action by people who have placed themselves within the reach of the law, evidently thinking they can silence a newspaper from giving publicity to their actions and reporting police court actions. Such stuff will not work. Defying the law and trying to hoodwink the police and smiling up their sleeves will usually end up with one result. Many have tried it and have come off poorer and wiser when the bluff has been called.
